THE LAGRANGE COLLEGE

STUDENT CREED

Life is mine to Live. That I may cherish it
And right royally meet its responsibilities,
I would lay aside that which is
Narrow, selfish, ignoble, and unkind;
The false, superficial, the dishonest
I would shun in thought, word and deed.
Rather may I cultivate in my college life
Those traits and ideals that will fit me
To weave dreams into realities, and impressions
into character,
To meet bravely the hard tasks of life,
To bring joy to those who falter in their tasks.
I would strive to judge more kindly,
Trust more fully, and love more deeply,
That my life may reflect His goodness.
And my soul may grow on the knowledge
Of Him, whom to know is life eternal.

Dr. Waights G. Henry, Jr.
President

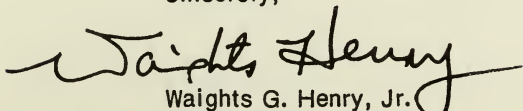

To The Students at LaGrange College

To new students and old, we offer a strong and earnest welcome. You are now joined with the administration and faculty of LaGrange College in an enterprise that will largely determine what you will do and be for the rest of your life.

Our faculty is comprised of younger men and women putting into practice the thoughts and plans that they have been eager to execute, and old pros who have settled for methods that they feel to have been tried and feel to be true. Whether young or old they are dedicated to helping you to find yourself and your place in a rapidly evolving social order.

Primarily, along with knowledge and skills, we wish to help you to develop a poise that comes from the possession of a set of spiritual values and satisfactory social adjustment. Now that we know where we stand, let's get with it.

Sincerely,

Waights G. Henry, Jr.
President

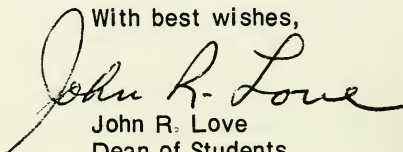

John R. Love
Dean of Students

I want to extend a hearty welcome to all new students. We're glad to have you at LaGrange College. I hope your enrollment here will be a rewarding experience for you.

By tradition LaGrange College has been noted for its personal relationship between faculty, administration, and students. We want you to help keep it this way. We feel that this close relationship will make your educational experience more meaningful and enjoyable.

In this handbook are some rules that the Student Government Association has drawn up with administration approval. Please read them thoroughly and stay out of trouble.

With best wishes,

John R. Love
Dean of Students

William Edward Nall, Jr.
President
Student Government Association

Welcome to LaGrange College. LaGrange College provides an opportunity for students not only to further their education but also to get to know many people including students and faculty and to become involved in campus organizations and issues. The relaxed and informal atmosphere allows students to know their professors both inside and outside of the classroom and to express themselves through many activities. We who have suffered the growing pains and have worked for the changes can state our love for the best of this campus but still see the need for reform. We hope that you will also see the good things and work for progress.

Sincerely,

Bill Nall

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Responsibility for maintenance of high standards and honorable conduct in academic matters and social activities is entrusted to students in cooperation with the faculty and administration of the College. To this end each student, upon enrollment at LaGrange College, signs the following pledge:

"In recognition of the obligations and privileges of membership in the student body of LaGrange College, I hereby agree to obey all rules and regulations of the College; to respect and to cooperate with its constituted authorities; to conduct myself honorably; and at all times to live in such a manner as to reflect credit upon myself, my family, and the College. I realize that failure to comply with this pledge subjects me to disciplinary action."

A student whose conduct indicates that he or she is not in sympathy with the ideals and standards of the College or who seems unable to profit from its program may be asked to withdraw.

STUDENT CONDUCT

LaGrange College has high standards of conduct. Drinking on campus, lying, cheating, and stealing are not contemned. In offenses involving issues of honor, the Judicial Council of the Student Government Association shall determine involvement. The Judicial Council's recommendations on the above issues are, in all instances, subject to the President of the College for review and/or advice.

The possession or consumption on the LaGrange College campus of any type of drug or any other intoxicant is forbidden. Off-campus activities of social organizations of LaGrange College are subject to the jurisdiction of state and local authorities.

Where an offense is proven to be one of serious social misconduct, the Dean of Students has the authority for disciplinary action. Where there are infractions of standards of integrity in the academic area, the Academic Dean has authority in dismissal.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Matters pertaining to Student Government are under the general direction of the Student Government Association and its branches and advised by the Dean of Students and the Student Affairs Committee.

The Student Government Association has three branches. The Executive Council, under the direction of officers elected by a campus-wide vote, coordinates all student activities on the campus. The Legislative Council makes the rules which regulate the democratic living of LaGrange College students. The Judicial Council may try cases involving dishonesty and serious misbehavior as determined by the rules and regulations.

GENERAL RULES FOR ALL STUDENTS

I. DORMITORY REGULATIONS.

A. Freshman Rules.

So that they will more easily adapt to the academic life, the SGA proposes that first quarter social freshman will be required to be in their dormitories by 11:00 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 1:30 a.m. on Friday and Saturday nights.

1. Social Freshmen will observe closed study hall between 7:30 and 10:00 on Monday through Thursday nights.
2. Freshmen may leave their dormitories during a closed study hall to go to the library by signing out with their residence counselor.
3. Freshmen may have ten week-nights out per quarter.
4. Students may not go to town on week nights between 7:30 and 10:00 without using night-out privileges.
5. Friday, Saturday, and Sunday are not included in the nights-out.

Beginning winter quarter, the following applies to all women students:

RESTRICTIONS.

Only those women students who maintain an overall 2.0 (C) average will be allowed to participate. The determining factor in one's participation in this system will be as follows:

- a. If a social freshman, the 2.0 will be determined after the first quarter in residence.
- b. If a transfer student, the 2.0 average will be determined from the transcript necessary for entrance into the college.

LOCKING OF DOORS.

The doors of the women's dormitories are to be locked at 12:00 on Sunday through Thursday nights, and at 2:00 on Friday and Saturday nights.

At the time the doors are locked, a student monitor is to go on duty in each dormitory. It will be the duty of the monitor to open the door for residents returning to the dormitory after the doors are locked. The dormitory residents will determine the monitoring system for each dorm. Those women who choose to participate in this system will be required to serve duty as monitor; those who do not wish to participate do not have to act as a monitor unless they choose to do so.

SIGNING OUT.

For the convenience of the student monitor, each resident who plans to return after the doors are locked will be required to sign a list stating the time she plans to return.

INFORMING OF PARENTS.

All students are expected to inform their parents of their decision to abide by the above hours system, and the college will advise the parents of their student's decision.

B. Quiet Hours

Every resident student will observe the following quiet hours on campus:

1. Sunday through Thursday - 7:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. until 9:00 a.m.

Students not requesting private rooms but who are occupying rooms without roommates at the beginning of a quarter will be given ONE week from registration to find a roommate. If, at the end of one week, the student is still occupying a room on a single basis, the single occupancy charge will be made. It is the responsibility of the student to find a suitable roommate. Willingness to accept a roommate will not constitute grounds for waiving the single room charge. A resident whose roommate chooses to leave after the first week of the quarter will not be charged for a private room for the remainder of the quarter. Determination of whether single or double room charges are applicable is the responsibility of the Resident Counselor.
6. Resident students are responsible for college property in the rooms they occupy.

PUBLICATIONS

THE HILLTOP NEWS

Editor Scott Winfield Wilson
Business Manager Henry Rollins Wynn, II

The College's student newspaper gets its name from the campus location, its staff members from the student body, and its content from campus activities. Started several years ago, it is published bi-monthly. It is financed by business advertisements and to a certain extent by the student activity fee.

The purpose of The Hilltop News is to report news which is of interest to the college community and to comment editorially on matters which concern the well-being of the college.

THE QUADRANGLE

Editor William Campbell Gilmore
Assistant Editor . Edward William Johnson, Jr.
Business Manager
Frederick George Wheelock, III

The Quadrangle, the LaGrange College yearbook, which dates back to 1914, contains a visual and verbal record of the college, including activities, organizations, sports, social life, and traditions. It also features some of the smaller and lighter segments of campus life. Working on the publication is divided among students interested in photography, art, writing and advertising.

THE SCROLL

Editor Debra Dee Jolly

This student-written and student-published magazine portrays through the medium of original literature the intellectual life and creativity of college students. Published twice a year, it is financed by your student activity fee. The magazine endeavors to present the best writing of students in the following areas: short stories, plays, poems, book reviews, feature articles, and essays. Pictorial art is also featured.

1. Selection of editors for THE HILLTOP NEWS, QUADRANGLE, and SCROLL shall be as follows:

The President of the Student Government Association shall appoint a committee to offer nominations from the junior class (rising seniors) for the three editorships. The committee should ascertain the willingness and ability of the nominees to hold the positions. The committee should recommend a minimum of two persons for each position. The S.G.A. then will supervise an election in which the entire student body is permitted to vote.

2. Once an editor has been selected for a publication, he shall meet with the faculty advisers for that publication to select a staff.
3. The selection of a QUADRANGLE queen and her court shall be a campus-wide election and the selection of the of the senior superlatives (including Mr. and Miss LaGrange College) shall be by the senior class, such elections to be conducted by the S.G.A.

4. The dedication for the QUADRANGLE shall be the prerogative of the senior class. The Student Government Association shall print ballots containing a statement to the effect:

"This is the official S.G.A. ballot for the election of the QUADRANGLE dedication."

A committee composed of the officers of the senior class and the editor of the QUADRANGLE shall select five persons from whom the senior class will make the dedication.

The committee will be given precisely the number of official ballots as there are members of the senior class. The committee shall then insert the names of the nominees on each ballot and mail a ballot in an envelope to each senior.

The S. G. A. shall then post announcements across campus displaying copies of the ballots minus the nominees' names and stamped VOID, including a message to the effect: "Each senior should have received an official ballot as herein shown with five names on it. If you are a senior and have not received a ballot or if there are not five names on your ballot, please contact the S.G.A."

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,

Guardian of our days;

For thy spirit never failing

We will sing thy praise,

High aloft we hold thy banner

Ever loyal, true;

And to thee, our Alma Mater,

We our pledge renew.

In thy mighty groves of learning,

Wisdom's paths we've sought,

High upon thy lofty hilltop

Visions have been wrought.

From our hearts we sing the chorus

Time shall never change,

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,

Hail to thee, LaGrange.
